

GOOD FAITH ESTIMATE FOR HEALTH CARE SERVICES DISCLAIMER

This Good Faith Estimate shows the costs of items and services that are reasonably expected for your health care needs for an item or service. The estimate is based on information known at the time the estimate was created.

The Good Faith Estimate does not include any unknown or unexpected costs that may arise during treatment. You could be charged more if there are additional services provided, such as vaccines or treatments, or if complications or special circumstances occur. If this happens, federal law allows you to dispute (appeal) the bill.

If you are billed for more than this Good Faith Estimate, you have the right to dispute the bill. The Good Faith Estimate is based on your appointment type. Any additional services rendered during your visit will be added to your charge statement. Please see attached METRO Fee Schedule for all charges and services rendered at METRO.

You may contact Metro Inclusive Health to inform us that the billed charges are higher than the Good Faith Estimate. You request to update the bill to match the Good Faith Estimate, ask to negotiate the bill, or ask if there is financial assistance available.

You may also start a dispute resolution process with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). If you choose to use the dispute resolution process, you must start the dispute process within 120 calendar days (about 4 months) of the date on the original bill.

There is a $25 fee to use the dispute process with HHS. If the agency reviewing your dispute agrees with you, you will have to pay the price on this Good Faith Estimate. If the agency disagrees with you and agrees with the health care provider or facility, you will have to pay the higher amount.
